The North Central Missouri College Lady Pirates basketball team has signed its first recruit for the 2013-14 season. Kayla Oetterer, a 5â□□11â□□ forward from New Haven, Missouri has made the decision to continue her basketball career at NCMC.
Oetterer is a 2012 graduate of New Haven High School and received a unanimous nomination to the Missouri Sports Writers and Broadcasters Associationâ□□s All District First Team in 2012. Her other honors include Academic All-Conference 2011-12, All South Callaway Tournament Team 2011 and 2012, First Team All Conference 2010, 2011, and 2012, First Team All District 2011-12, KLPW Player of the Week 2011, and Prep Cast Player of the Game (Districts 2010). Oettererâ□□s career point total is 1,358 with game averages of 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Head Lady Pirates Coach Jenni Croy commented, â□□Kayla will be a great addition to our program. Her team earned second in state in Class 2 her senior season, and Kayla was a big part of that accomplishment. Sheâ□□s played in big games and comes from an outstanding high school program. We look for great things from her as an NCMC Lady Pirate.â□□

Kayla Oetterer is the daughter of Rodney and Kathy Oetterer and plans to obtain her Associate in Arts degree from NCMC with an eventual career goal in the healthcare field.
