A Jamesport man received what the Highway Patrol called minor injuries when the horse drawn vehicle he was operating was hit by a car just east of Jamesport.

54-year old Perry Kurt of Jamesport was taken by private vehicle to Cameron Regional Medical Center.

The patrol reported the eastbound horse drawn vehicle was attempting a left turn onto a private driveway late Friday morning, east of Jamesport on Highway 6, when it was hit in the side by an eastbound car attempting to pass.

The horse drawn vehicle overturned, blocking the westbound lane of Highway 6. Damage was listed as minor to both the car and the horse drawn vehicle.

The driver of the car, 23-year old Nicole fischbach of Trenton, was not reported hurt.
