The Trenton Lady Bulldogs finished in third place among three schools at Brookfield on Tuesday afternoon, shooting a team score of 257.

The Macon Tigerettes shot 238 as a team, well behind the winning score of 207 turned in by the Brookfield Lady 'Dogs. Trenton's top score was a 57 by Caitlin McNabb, good for a 7th place individual finish. Other THS scores from the day were Abby Gonzalez at 66, 67's for Lauren Schmidt and Jordain Oshel, 68 for Kaitlyn Mounce, and 72 for Sheridan Jamvold.

Here are post-meet comments from Head Coach Jeremy Austin:

"We played much better here than we did in St. Joe last week. I think the girls are getting more confident and starting to relax. We still had some implosions, but they were surrounded with much more reasonable numbers. I think as the season goes on, we will improve greatly. There is just a lot of nerves still causing problems at this point. I was really impressed with Caitlin, she played consistently and with confidence. Her game will unquestionably be one to watch over the next few weeks."

The Lady Bulldogs will get right back into the schedule, HOSTING the Chillicothe Lady Hornets today (Wednesday) at 4 o'clock at Riverside Country Club, then traveling early Thursday morning to the Schuyler County Tournament in Queen City. Action starts at 9 o'clock in the morning.
