South Harrison Bulldogs win 2012 THS Wrestling Tournament
Sports
Posted by : Tom
Posted on : 2012/12/17 16:29:22

South Harrison won the Trenton High School Wrestling Tournament by 44 1/2 points over second-place Trenton on Saturday. South Harrison and Trenton each had three individual champions, but South Harrison's lead, and team win, was gained by the Bethany team having five runner-up finishers, compared to Trenton's two. South Harrison accumulated 178 points, Trenton 133 1/2, and third place Stanberry 109. Marceline had 99, Maryville 98, St. Joseph Central JV 78, Gallatin 75 1/2, South Holt 61, and Southwest Livingston 40. There also were a handful of JV wrestlers from Marceline, S.J. Central, and Trenton.
The Trenton varsity had first place finishes from Carlos Gonzalez at 113 points, Mason Mounce at 152, and Jacob Spillman at 182 pounds. Other individual champions were Dalton Fisher of Marceline at 106, Brody Richardson of South Harrison at 120, Nate Alexander of Maryville at 126, Jesse Oldham of Stanberry at 132, Austin Ward of South Harrison at 138, Dane Hull of Maryville at 145, Kasey McFall of South Harrison at 160, Logan Nigh of St. Joseph Central's JV at 170, Ethan Crowe of Southwest Livingston at 195, Jimmy Dale of Gallatin at 220, and Brenden Weybrew of Maryville at 285.

Trenton's second place finishers were Caleb Feagins at 138 pounds and Thomas Mack at 160. Coming in third for THS was Travis Leeper at 145.

Here is Trenton Head Wrestling Coach Charlie Bacon:

Click here to listen to THS Wrestling Coach Charlie Bacon

Coach Bacon thanked the volunteers who helped to operate this year's Trenton Tournament:

Click here to listen to THS Wrestling Coach Charlie Bacon

That is Trenton Head Wrestling Coach Charlie Bacon.