Television affiliate information has been finalized for the University of Missouri football game on Saturday, October 5th at Vanderbilt, as announced by the Southeastern Conference.

Six different outlets have agreed to broadcast the game, which will be televised by Comcast Sports South (CSS) and will kick at 6:30 PM in Nashville, Tennessee.

Affiliates within the state of Missouri include: KCTV (Channel 5) in Kansas City, Charter Cable (Channel 224) in Cape Girardeau, KQFX-TV in Columbia, KOZL-TV in Springfield, KNPN-TV in St. Joseph, and Charter Cable (Channel 224) in St. Louis.

The game will be broadcast statewide across the Tiger Radio Network from Learfield Sports, with "Tiger Tailgate" beginning pregame coverage at 4:30 PM locally on KTTN FM 92.3.
