The Children's Department at the Livingston County Library at Chillicothe is hosting it's first annual pumpkin decorating contest.

The rules require each entry to be created by a child. No cutting of the pumpkin is allowed. And, the pumpkin needs to be a children's storybook character.

Pumpkins of any size, shape, or color may be used.

There are 4 age groups for those entering the contest. Under 6, 6 through 9, 10 to 12, and family. A prize is to be given for each category.

The deadline to submit a decorated pumpkin to the the Children's Department at the Livingston County Library is the afternoon of October 18th at 5 o'clock. They'll be displayed in the Children's Department for patrons to cast votes. The results are to be announced October 31st.
