Multiple drug-related charges have been filed against at least six residents of Lancaster following a drug bust late last week in northeast Missouri's Schuyler County.

Charges filed in the Schuyler County Circuit Court included distribution of a controlled substance near public housing or other government-assisted housing; possession of a felony amount of marijuana; delivery or sale of drug paraphernalia; and possession of a synthetic cannabinoid.

Each of the four men and two women were held in jail in lieu of 100 thousand dollars cash bond. Those in custody are identified as 54 year old Vernon Bone, 38 year old Gary Thomas, 28 year old Travis McClure, 25 year old Benjamin Godby, 25 year old Amanda Burch, and 23 year old Anthony Gallup, all from Lancaster.
