The Trenton Lady Bulldog volleyball team, in comparison to their match against September against the Lathrop Lady Mules, were much more competitive, but lost in straight sets on Tuesday night at the THS gymnasium.

The Lady Mules grabbed the varsity win over Trenton, 25-21, 25-19. For the Lady Bulldogs, Lakisha Hughs had three aces, six kills, and one block. Alex Ewald had six assists and 17 digs. Malinda Foster had 17 digs.

The Lathrop JV was able to grab a tight first-set win in sweeping the Trenton JV on Tuesday night, 28-26, 25-14. Jasmyn French had two aces and a block, Tomi Delp six kills, and Nikki Hagan three assists and 15 digs for Trenton.

The Lady Bulldogs travel to Riverside High School in Elwood, Kansas to play in the Riverside Tournament on Saturday. Trenton's opponents will be South Holt, St. Joseph Christian, Mound City, and Troy (Kansas).
