A Milan resident received what the Highway Patrol called minor injuries Saturday night when the car she was driving hit a raccoon and utility pole east of Green City.

The patrol reported 33-year old Brianna Trotter of Milan was to seek treatment later.

The accident occurred one mile east of green city on Highway 6. The investigating officer reported the eastbound car hit a raccoon, went off the right side of the road, and struck a utility pole demolishing the vehicle.

Ms. Trotter was wearing a seatbelt.
