The Missouri Attorney General's Office says 33-year old Kenneth Shumate of Unionville has been sentenced to three life sentences, plus 55 years, for three counts of statutory sodomy in the first degree, six counts of statutory sodomy in the second degree, two counts of statutory rape in the second degree, and one count of sexual exploitation of a child.

Judge Roger Prokes of Gentry County (in September), found Shumate guilty of 12 felony counts related to sexual abuse of two minor boys. The case was heard in Gentry County on a change of venue from Putnam County. Mercer County Prosecutor John Young served as Special Prosecuting Attorney at the request of the Putnam County prosecutor. Young was assisted by Missouri Assistant Attorney Generals Brent Nelson and Katherine Dolin.
