The Southeastern Conference has named Missouri junior guard Jordan Clarkson as Player of the Week for November 11th through November 17th.

Clarkson, a 6 foot 5 inch, 193 pound native of San Antonio, Texas, averaged 22 points, 3 1/2 assists, and 1 1/2 steals in Tiger victories over Southern Illinois and Hawaii. Against SIU, he scored a career-high 31 points, hitting 12 of 18 shots, and dishing out five assists. Behind Clarkson, Missouri has started the season with a 3-0 record, and is receiving votes in the latest Associated Press Top 25 poll.
