A Princeton resident was hurt early Friday morning east of Trenton, when she swerved to miss a deer on ice-covered Highway 6. The car she was driving went off the road and crashed into an embankment.

Twenty-five year old Jennifer Jones was taken to Wright Memorial Hospital in Trenton with minor injuries (according to the Highway Patrol). The accident was one mile east of Trenton on Highway 6. The eastbound car went off the left side of the road and hit an embankment. Damage to the vehicle was moderate. Ms. Jones was wearing a seat belt.
