An Albany girl was hurt early Wednesday night when the sport utility vehicle she was driving overturned down an embankment east of Albany.

16-year old Catherine Coleman was taken to Northwest Medical Center at Albany with what the highway patrol called moderate injuries.

The accident occurred three miles east of Albany on Highway 136. The patrol reported the SUV was eastbound when Ms. Coleman attempted to turn south. The vehicle went off the road, rolling down an embankment.

The hummer was extensively damaged.

Ms. Coleman was wearing a seatbelt.
