A resident of Kingston was injured on Wednesday afternoon in an accident that happened in Ray County.

The Highway Patrol said 21-year old Paige Ahart was northbound when her vehicle ran off Route C, began sliding and overturned, coming to rest on its top in a creek bed. She was transported by ambulance to Liberty Hospital, to treat MODERATE injuries. Her vehicle was demolished in the 1:25 PM accident (on Route C north of West 196th Street). She was wearing a seat belt.
