Today's report from the Grundy County Sheriff's Department shows the arrest of three people -- two of them Trenton residents -- on the same charges.

Thirty-four year old Nathan Vandevender 4301 East 10th Street and 35-year old Heather Dawn Marshall of 478 Northeast 53rd Street face charges of felony possession of a controlled substance Tuesday in Trenton. Court information identifies the substance as Ambien. Both are held in custody in lieu of ten thousand dollars cash bond.

A Spickard man, 59-year old David Briegel, faces felony stealing charges in connection with the alleged theft October 1st of a wedding set from the "This and That" business in Trenton. The rings are valued at over 500 dollars. Bond for Briegel, arrested on Tuesday, was set at ten thousand dollars cash. All three people are to be in Associate Division of Grundy County Circuit Court on Tuesday, January 14th.
