A collection of works by a St. Charles, Missouri area painter will continue the 2013-2014 exhibition schedule in the Dorris Rider Art Gallery at North Central Missouri College in Trenton. The exhibition "Paintings by Mary Nasser" is open and will run through February 21st.

The exhibit features several mixed media paintings on canvas and wood panels, drawing inspiration from nature, specifically landscapes and geology. The paintings are influenced by topographical maps of places the artist has lived and sites she has visited in her travels including the American Southwest and Hawaii, as well as Mexico and various European countries. Ms. Nasser has had more than 20 solo shows in the past ten years and has been awarded numerous residency opportunities.

The gallery is located in the Frey Administrative Building. NCMC students and the public are invited to visit the exhibit.

Regular hours at the Rider Art Gallery are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, as well as selected weekend and evening hours by appointment. For more information, contact Art Gallery Director Jim Norris at 359-3948 ext. 1345 at NCMC.
