A Ridgeway resident was hurt when the sport utility vehicle she was driving went out of control on a snow covered road in Harrison County and overturned.

70 year old Madlyn Miles was taken to Harrison County Community Hospital at Bethany. The highway patrol report indicated she had minor injuries.

The accident occurred late Friday afternoon 4 miles west of Mount Moriah on Route Y.

The eastbound SUV went off the road, hit a ditch, rolling once, coming to rest on its wheels. The vehicle was extensively damaged.

Madlyn Miles was wearing a seatbelt.
