A North Carolina man faces several charges following his arrest by the Highway Patrol on Saturday morning.

37 year old Aaron Pycior is charged in Daviess County with felony counts of 1st degree tampering with a motor vehicle, resisting arrest by fleeing, and possession of a controlled substance.

Pycior also is charged with misdemeanor counts accusing him with exceeding the speed limit by 26 miles an hour or more, operating a vehicle without a valid license, and unlawful use of drug paraphernalia.

Pycior was being held in the Daviess-Dekalb Regional Jail in lieu of $85,000 cash only bond.

Details regarding the arrest were not immediately available from the highway patrol.
