The Mizzou Tigers blazed out of the gates on Sunday afternoon at Auburn University, with freshmen Sierra Michaelis (Mercer, MO) and Kayla McDowell providing a spark in a 68-58 road win.

The Tiger held a 42-14 halftime advantage over Auburn, with Michaelis putting up eight points and three rebounds in the first half, while McDowell had nine points and seven boards, finishing with 11 and 9 on the day. Junior Morgan Eye led the Tigers attack with 21 points, including 6-of-10 shooting from three-point range. The Tigers, now 15-10 overall, and 4-8 in the SEC, will play at Florida on Thursday night. The game tips off at 6 o'clock, and can be viewed on Florida's Sun Sports.
