A Kingston resident was hurt Friday when the pickup truck he was driving overturned southeast of Hamilton.

The highway patrol said 27 year old Matthew Brackin of Kingston was flown by medical helicopter to Liberty Hospital with serious injuries.

The accident was 1 mile southeast of Hamilton on Northeast Independence Drive.

The patrol said the pickup went off the road and overturned, coming to rest on the passenger side of the vehicle. The pickup was demolished.

The patrol said Brackin was accused of misdemeanor driving while intoxicated, careless and imprudent driving involving an accident, and not wearing a seatbelt.
