Chillicothe Mayor Chuck Haney, Wednesday morning hosts his Quarterly Coffee in the new Litton Room inside the new Hedrick Medical Center. Starting at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The general public is invited to hear from Catherine Hamilton, Chief Nursing Officer and Matt Wenzel, Chief Executive officer both at Hedrick; and Darrell Wright, fire chief and director of Emergency Management and Ambulance Services. Each will speak about the new hospital and take questions from the public. City Administrator Ike Holland and Mayor Haney will also make comments and take questions.

Added to the Wednesday morning event will be short tours for the general public of the new two-story hospital. Tours are offered for persons who did not have the opportunity to view the facility during the grand opening.

The Litton Room is in the Conference Center between the gift shop and Garden Caf  on the right as you enter the main entrance. It should conclude by 11 a.m. Refreshments will be available.
