Law enforcement officers have arrested Damen Richard White in the 13 hundred block of Lambert Drive at Chillicothe on two felony Livingston county arrest warrants.

According to Chillicothe Police, the original charges were for nonsupport of a child and stealing property or services more than $500.00 less than $25-thousand dollars.

Bond was set at $25 thousand dollars cash only.Â Damen White also faces other multiple counts including resisting arrest for a felony, possession of a controlled substance, possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of less than 35 grams of marijuana and property damage.Â Police officers also arrested 40 year old Scott Martin White for possession of a controlled substance.Â Online court records show bond at $5,000.

While officers were serving the warrants, the police report said a dog bit one of the officers. The dog was removed from the residence with the assistance of the Livingston County Animal Control Officer.Â Police said Theresa Maureen Thompson was issued a citation for having a dog without current vaccinations and no annual city license for the dog.Â

Damen and Scott White were transferred to the Daviess-DeKalb Regional Jail pending the filing of formal charges.Â Officers were assisted at the scene by the Livingston County Sheriff's Department.
