It was a light case load in the latest session of the Associate Division Of Grundy County Circuit Court.

35 year old Carrie McClain of Trenton waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to Division 1 of Grundy County Circuit Court. Ms. McClain is accused of possessing methamphetamines in February. Ms. McClain also is accused of being a persistent offender. The charge notes she's twice, in the past, pleaded guilty to felony distribution of a controlled substance in Grundy County, once in 2006 and the other time in 2008.

36 year old John Brown of Galt waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to Division 1 of Circuit Court on a charge accusing him with driving while intoxicated in November and being an aggravated offender. The charge says Brown pleaded guilty to DWI in Grundy County 3 times, once each in 2003, 2006, and 2010.

23 year old Joshua Roseman of Kearney waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to Division 1 of Circuit Court on a charge of non-support of a child.
