Twelve schools participated in a coloring contest for kindergarten students sponsored by the North Central Missouri Mental Health Center at Trenton.

It's part of this week being observed as Children's Mental Health Week.

1st place finishers at the various schools were Bode Austin at S.M. Rissler at Trenton, Yadira Velasquez of Laredo, Cristal Earriga of Grundy R-5 at Humphreys, Ashley Castro of Milan, Sari Rogers from North Mercer, Olivia Jenkins and Bryn Brown from Chillicothe; Keristyn McCoy of Southwest Livingston at Ludlow; Whitly Gregory from Hamilton; Savannah Gillalypse of Linn R-1 at Purdin; Emree Littrell of Brookfield; Warmer Wright of Marceline; and Avionna Lewis of Bucklin.

The theme of the coloring contest was Reel in Good Mental Health.

The National Federation for Children's Mental Health is observing this week as Children's Mental Health Week. It's to increase public awareness of the well being and human development of the nation's children and youth.
