A Kirksville resident was hurt when she was thrown from the motorcycle she was operating in eastern Putnam County.

24 year old Jessica Reil of Kirksville was taken to Northeast Regional Medical Center at Kirksville. The highway patrol said she had moderate injuries.

The accident was Saturday afternoon 3 miles north of Hartford on Route YY.

The patrol said Ms. Reil lost control of the northbound motorcycle on loose gravel---and was thrown from the machine. She was wearing a safety device.

Damage to the motorcycle was described as moderate.
