Two Stanberry residents were hurt when a sports utility vehicle overturned yesterday afternoon east of Stanberry.

19 year old Ashley Farnsworth and 16 year old Hailey Farnsworth were taken to Northwest Medical Center at Albany. The highway patrol said both persons had minor injuries. They were passengers in The SUV driven by 23 year old Jonathan Farnsworth of Stanberry. He was not reported hurt.

The accident was nearly 5 miles east of Stanberry on 495th Road. The patrol said the accident occurred where the road turned from mud to gravel. The southbound SUV went out of control, off the right side of the road, hit a fence, traveled down an embankment, overturned, hit an embankment, and came to rest on its wheels in the ditch.

The sport utility vehicle was demolished.

The patrol said none of three persons was wearing a seatbelt.
