There were 187 entries in the flower show at the North Central Missouri Fair. They were entered by 41 persons, 20 of them for the first time.

Teresa Cross won the best of show honors for a flower arrangement. Jackie Soptic won the outstanding award for her fairy garden.

Rhonda Johnson received the garden club award for having the most blue ribbons.

Jenna Hunter received the junior award for having the most blue ribbons.

Flower show officials said the most unusual award went to Novy Foland's puff balls.
