Performances are scheduled on Friday and Saturday, July 13th and 14th, as a fundraiser for the Gallatin Theatre League. An entertainer, known as Tobias, is scheduled to present an evening of "music, dancing, comedy, and inspiration".

Showtimes for both evenings are 7:30 at the Courter Theatre in Gallatin. General admission seat tickets cost $5.00 at the door. The Gallatin Theatre League is a non-profit organization.

A spokesman for the theatre group reported that Tobias is part of the Billings Family that owns the WideBand Corporation in Gallatin.
