

Highway Patrol reminds motorists to "remember safety" over the July 4th holiday
News

Posted by : Tom

Posted on : 2012/7/3 9:40:00

The Missouri State Highway Patrol is taking the week of Independence Day to remind the public to "drive safely" to their destinations. Sergeant Brent Bernhardt is a Public Information Officer with the Highway Patrol:

Click here to listen to Brent Bernhardt

Motorists are encouraged to ensure their vehicle is in good working condition:

Click here to listen to Brent Bernhardt

Sergeant Bernhardt was asked whether there have been problems from extending the required vehicle inspections from one year to the current two years:

Click here to listen to Brent Bernhardt

The Highway Patrol sergeant emphasized the need to wear seat belts and do not drive after consuming alcohol:

Click here to listen to Brent Bernhardt

That is Sergeant Brent Bernhardt, a Public Information Officer with the Missouri State Highway Patrol in Macon, who also wants to remind boaters to wear life jackets.