Two teenagers were injured on Tuesday when (according to the Highway Patrol) their pickup twice ran off a road north of Bethany and overturned onto the driver's side. The accident happened on Harrison County Route W, three miles north of Bethany.

Taken to Harrison County Community Hospital in Bethany were the driver Alex Groom of Ridgeway and passenger, Kathryn Parton of Pattonsburg, both 18 years of age.

Groom was listed with minor injuries while Miss Parton had MODERATE injuries. Tuesday afternoon's accident demolished the pickup truck. Neither person was listed by the patrol as using a seat belt.
