The Chillicothe "Mayor's Coffee" will be held this Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at Francine's Pastry Parlor at 1007 Bryan Street. Mayor Chuck Haney will be joined by guests Josh Norris of the Parks and Recreation Department and Barry Arthur of the Street Department, to discuss the progress of the new water park, along with current street work. Mayor Haney will also address those present in regards to "other city issues".

This will be the third quarterly coffee to be held in 2012. Questions are welcome and the public is encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be available. The sessions are meant to provide opportunities for the public to learn more about the city of Chillicothe's government and receive updates on progress of various items by the city. The "Quarterly Mayor's Coffee" should conclude by 11 o'clock tomorrow (Wednesday) morning.
