Chillicothe FFA members, as a fundraiser for their chapter, are available to do various jobs at home and farms. People with any type of job are being asked to contact a Chillicothe FFA member, or one of the advisors at the Litton Agriculture Campus. Teams will be organized to do the work. The Chillicothe High School class averaging the most money raised, per member, will have its barnwarming candidates crowned king and queen.

The candidates are CHS Seniors Orren Beck and Caela Ashford, Juniors Tucker Jones and Maggie Graves, Sophomores Zach Quinn and Carlee Johnson, and Freshmen Nate McKiddy and Marissa Surber.

The coronation will be Saturday, November 3rd at Chillicothe's annual Barnwarming Dance. The Chillicothe FFA chapter has a goal to raise nearly $20,000 this year for chapter operations.
