A Tina man received what the Highway Patrol called SERIOUS injuries when the pickup truck he was driving overturned off a road in southeastern Livingston County early Sunday morning. Twenty-three year old Clinton Brown of Tina was flown by medical helicopter to Liberty Hospital.

The accident was three miles north of Hale on Livingston County Route H. The Patrol said the northbound pickup went off the left side of the road at a curve and overturned once, coming to rest on the driver's side of the vehicle.

The pickup was demolished. The Patrol said Brown was not wearing a seat belt. He was accused of driving while intoxicated.
