

Chillicothe Fine Arts Council announces two future programs

News

Posted by : John

Posted on : 2012/10/9 8:40:00

The Chillicothe Area Arts Council presents the St. Joseph Symphony Trio on Sunday, October 14th at 3 o'clock. A children's theater performance is Tuesday, October 16th at 6:30. Both shows will be held in the Gary Dickinson Performing Arts Center.

You can see and hear three outstanding musicians: a violinist; a cellist; and a guitarist.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $7 for children. Get your tickets from the Chillicothe Area Arts council for this musical performance from the St. Joseph Symphony Trio on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Chillicothe. Season ticket holders will be admitted with their season ticket.

The Chillicothe Area Arts Council presents an award-winning theater program for children at 6:30 on Tuesday, October 16th. It features the St. Louis Metro Children's Theater performing "Super Cowgirl and Mighty Miracle."

The program emphasizes tolerance and compassion and is about a child being raised by her grandmother, and a special dog that comes into their lives. Tickets are $7.00 for adults and $3.00 for students. Season ticket holders will be admitted with their season ticket to the October 16th children's theatre performance in Chillicothe.