The Stacy Center in Princeton hosts a "Winter Wonderland" event on Saturday, December 1st from 9 to 2 o'clock. Local vendors will be at the Stacy Center for people wishing to do Christmas shopping. Princeton High School students will provide gift wrapping and entertainment. Among the entertainers will be a gymnastics group performing tumbling routines. One of Santa's elves also is to be available for pictures on December 1st at the Stacy Center in Princeton.

The Princeton Chamber of Commerce will have activities that same day on the Princeton Square. They include the Princeton High School band and choir performing Christmas carols at 12:30. Santa and Mrs. Claus are to arrive in downtown Princeton by fire truck, and be at the Senior Center until 3 o'clock. There also will be a children's store with elves available to help children pick out and wrap gifts. The Chamber event is called "A Hometown Christmas".
