The Trenton Lady Bulldogs survived a strong test from Gallatin on Friday night, winning the front end of a girl's/boy's varsity doubleheader from Trenton High School by a score of 48-39, in action heard on Hot Country Z 101.7 and www.kgozfm.com.

Gallatin led the 7-0 Lady Bulldogs 8-7 after one quarter, and the game was tied (at 14) at the half, before Trenton seized control of the contest, outscoring Gallatin 17-2 in the third quarter, before a Sara Lin three-pointer cut Trenton's advantage to 31-19 at the quarter break. Gallatin made a couple of runs at Trenton in the fourth quarter, but each was held off by THS, with the home team moving to 8-0 with the win, and dropping Gallatin to 5-3.

Trenton's Makaila Capeder scored 14 points (all in the second half) to lead her squad to the win, with McKinley Hurley and Scotlin Hurley both scoring nine. Gallatin's Lin led all scorers with 16 points (including four three-point shots) with Aubrey Nelson adding eight.
