A Unionville resident was hurt on Wednesday afternoon when the sport utility vehicle she was driving went out of control on Highway 5 north of Unionville and hit a mailbox and a utility box.

Eighteen-year old Marissa Shuey suffered 'minor' injuries, and was treated at Putnam County Memorial Hospital in Unionville.

The accident was early on Wednesday afternoon two miles north of Unionville on Highway 5. The Patrol said the SUV went off the right side of the road after Ms. Shuey lost control of the vehicle. The SUV sustained moderate damage. Ms. Shuey was wearing a seat belt.
