The City of Chillicothe has announced the employment of Chuck Greever of Chillicothe as the city's Building Codes Enforcement officer. Greever has been employed by Liberty Carbon Services in Excelsior Springs, where he has been a contractor working on special projects and equipment utilities maintenance.

Greever has also operated Greever Home Improvement and has experience with doing home inspections. Greever is the pastor at Utica Baptist Church. His wife Connie is a nurse at Hedrick Medical Center. They have two grown children.

Chuck Greever will join Tammi Venneman in Chillicothe's City Codes department. Greever replaces Donnie Vandevender of Trenton, who resigned to accept employment as Trenton's code officer.
