Trenton and Spickard residents were injured on Thursday morning in a two-car vehicle on a private road southeast of Ravanna.

The Highway Patrol said the two drivers, 25-year old Kera Lewis of Trenton and 26-year old Kaila Barnes of Spickard, were taken to a hospital in Corydon, Iowa with minor injuries.

The accident was two miles southeast of Ravanna on private property.

The Patrol said the cars met at a hillcrest and the left front corners of the two vehicles collided.

Damage was listed as moderate to Ms. Barnes' car and minor to Ms. Lewis' vehicle. Both women were wearing seat belts.
