A Gallatin man was fatally injured last night when, according to the Highway Patrol, he was thrown off his overturning motorcycle near Jameson. The victim, 26 year old Jesse Brown of Gallatin, was pronounced dead at the scene late in the afternoon by the Daviess County Coroner.

The patrol said Brown was northbound on Highway 13 when his motorcycle failed to negotiate a right hand turn; traveled off the west side where it overturned.

The motorcycle came to a stop on the east side and Brown landed on the west side. He was wearing a safety device. Damage was extensive to the motorcycle.
