

NCMC basketball team adds Oak Park High School product

Sports

Posted by : Tom

Posted on : 2013/5/30 8:24:57

Head Coach Steve Richman of the North Central Missouri College men's basketball team announces his fourth signee, Dalton Lundy, from Oak Park High School in Kansas City. Previously announced players for next fall's team include Andrew Berry (Columbia-Hickman), Tyrell Thirfield (Higginsville), and Jory Woodson (Rockwood Summit in Fenton).

Coach Richman remarked, "Dalton will give us depth at the guard position and shoot for the three." He is extremely dedicated to the game of basketball and will be an asset to our team.

At Oak Park High School during his senior year, Dalton Lundy averaged 13.5 points, 5.6 rebounds, and 1.2 assists per game. He was named to the All-Conference, All-District, and Lions All-Star teams, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. Dalton Lundy is 6'1".