Livingston County deputy Brady Graham has resigned. The announcement was made on Thursday by Sheriff Steve Cox. In an e-mail response to a question about the reason for the resignation, Cox said he "does not share specifics about employee issues".

Graham was involved in a non-injury traffic accident on Tuesday evening in Chillicothe while attempting to stop another vehicle, which Sheriff Cox said run a red light. Graham also was involved in a May 16th accident northwest of Chillicothe while responding to an emergency call. In that accident, he swerved to miss an oncoming vehicle.
