The date has been set this fall for Trenton to host what's described as a multi-denominational revival for men of the community.

The event has been scheduled for September 14th at the N-C-M-C Ketcham community center. The starting time on that Saturday is 8 o'clock in the morning.

A committee with representation from several churches will continue to meet as revival plans get finalized. Approximately 25 men, representing eight community churches, have volunteered with various committees. Among them are Mike Dennis, E-J Barnes, Doug Crawford, Ron Cooper, David Trickel, Mike Smith, Danny Moore, Jim Whitley, Brian Holcomb, and Dave Donnell. Others who would like to help on any of the committee may contact David Trickel or Mike Smith at Trenton.

The next meeting of the revival planning committee is Sunday (June 9th) at 2 o'clock at the South Evans Christian Church northeast of Trenton on Route Y.

A spokesman indicates the focus of the revival is described as "not to intrude on denominational values" but to equip men to be better--whether they are husbands, fathers, brothers, sons, or neighbors, while also becoming more active within their respective churches. Thus, the committee has selected the theme of "better equipped" for the mens revival "again" the date is September 14th.
