A single vehicle accident south of Cameron late Sunday afternoon injured a teenage girl.

A single vehicle accident south of Cameron late Sunday afternoon injured a teenage girl from Parkville. The highway patrol described injuries as moderate for 17 year old Heaven Gott. She was taken by ambulance to Cameron Regional Medical Center.

She was a passenger in a car driven by 19 year old Nicholas Pierson of Excelsior Springs. He wasn't hurt. The car was demolished when it drifted off the left side of i-35, and struck a guard rail; then continued into the median where it stopped.

According to the report, the passenger was wearing a seat belt while the driver was not. The accident happened four miles south of Cameron.
