Portions of five streets in Trenton will be affected Tuesday by a planned water outage followed by a precautionary boil advisory.

Water main repairs are listed as the reason for the interruption of water service and boil notice.

Trenton Municipal Utilities reports water will be off for three hours Tuesday morning, 8 to 11 o'clock, affecting customers on Harris from 12th street to 13th court; on Kelso from 13th street to 13th court; on 13th street between Harris and Normal; also on Hemley from 13th street to 13th court; as well as on 13th Court between Harris and Normal.

The precautionary boil advisory for these customers extends until 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.
