A Savannah woman was killed in a traffic accident three miles west of Savannah Thursday evening.

According to the Highway Patrol, 32 year old Angela Greenhaw was killed Thursday evening, three miles west of Savannah on US 59.

Ms. Greenhaw's vehicle was traveling eastbound on US 59 when she lost control of the vehicle, traveled off the North side of the roadway, striking the embankment.

The vehicle overturned multiple times ejecting the driver, coming to rest on it's wheels. The driver was not wearing a seatbelt.

The accident was investigated by Corporal J.E. Christensen of the Missouri State Highway Patrol.
