The Livingston County Sheriff has been busy with a variety of calls. The office also reports on arrests.

These are the activities, as reported by a press release from the office of the Livingston County Sheriff.

Incidents:

On the morning of June 13 we responded to a location along Highway 190 on a complaint of domestic violence. Investigation shows no evidence of any abuse and the female was given a ride to Hedrick Medical Center for unrelated reasons. Outside sources for assistance were given.

June 13 we began an investigation of theft, property damage, and tampering with motor vehicles after it was discovered unknown persons have removed radiators, batteries and other items from several vehicles and farm machines. These items were obviously stolen for scrap salvage. Investigation continues.

A local resident reported recently being contacted after posting an item for sale on the Internet. The person contacting our resident sent a forged check to be cashed and was allegedly making plans to pickup the property. The bank informed the citizen the check was of no value. Fortunately no one was out any money. This type of scam the buyer usually asks the intended victim to wire back any extra money.

An allegation of abuse from a person now in the Department of Corrections about their treatment in the Daviess Dekalb County Regional Jail was investigated and evidence was collected via recorded video and telephone in addition to statements from other people present supports no violation took place. A copy of the documents and evidence has been shared with our office and the Missouri Department of Corrections.

Identity theft can hit anyone as this month one of our deputies learned that someone had obtained their personal information and opened a credit card in the State of Georgia. Information and cooperation has been provided to the investigating credit company and respective authorities.

We are investigating a reported theft of 4 chrome wheels and tires from a location on Liv 330 in the south east part of Livingston County.

On June 04 we assisted the Chillicothe Police with an investigation that led to a rural address and a search of a residence with consent took place. All evidence obtained was given to the Chillicothe PD Officer.

June 05 we investigated a domestic disturbance without injury at a location in Utica. That investigation has resulted in a report being generated for the prosecuting attorney to review for consideration of any charges.
