

Missing Hamilton Woman Found

<http://www.kttn.com/kgofm/modules/news/article.php?storyid=19278>

Missing Hamilton Woman Found News

Posted by : Randy

Posted on : 2013/6/16 10:10:00

The Missouri State Highway Patrol had issued a missing person's report for Lauren G. Crawford, 23 of Hamilton.

At the time of her disappearance, The state highway patrol's release says she was possibly wearing pink shorts and red Brooks tennis shoes.

Crawford had left her residence around 11 a.m. on June 15 to walk her dog. The dog was found around 5:41 P.M..

The Caldwell County Sheriff's Office has confirmed that 23 year-old Lauren Crawford was located overnight.

The search is not over, however; they are still seeking Brian James Adkison. He was named in the advisory as a suspect whom Lauren Crawford has an order of protection against.

The Advisory described Brain Adkison as a white 23 year-old male, six-feet tall, weighing about 165 pounds with brown hair and brown eyes. He is known to have a scar on this thigh.

Anyone with any information is asked to dial 911 or contact the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office at 816-586-2681.