A Macon man is in recovery after being struck by lightning Saturday night.

Macon County Emergency Management officials say the man was at an outdoor auction at Scotty's Auction Service in Macon when a lightning bolt hit him.

At approximately 6 PM, Macon county enhanced 911 dispatchers sent the Macon County Sheriff's Office, Macon Police Department, and Macon County EMS personnel to the scene.

The man was transported to a Columbia, Missouri hospital with moderate injuries.

His name was not released
