A northeast Missouri man, who admitted to several sex related felony charges, will spend 37 years in prison.

Billie Spaid, 36, of Macon, entered a guilty plea to charges of enticement of a child, endangering the welfare of a child, second degree statutory sodomy and two counts of second degree statutory rape.

Spaid was sentenced to 30 years in prison on the enticement charge. He was sentenced to 7 years on each of the remaining counts, with those sentences to be served at the same time. The judge ordered the 7 year sentence to be served following the completion of the 30 year sentence. In total, Spaid was sentenced to 37 years in prison.

In a connected case, Billie Spaid's wife, Christina, who pleaded guilty to 4 charges, was sentenced back in April to 7 years in prison. Her charges included felony counts of first degree endangering the welfare of a child, second degree statutory sodomy and use of a child in a sexual performance and a misdemeanor count of unlawful sex with an animal

Christina Spaid is currently serving her time at the Women's Correctional Center in Vandalia.
